Spreading Devotion to the Most Holy Name of Jesus

GOD BE WITH YOU

When the Irish emigrants left their homeland in those desperate days of the mid-19th century, their families and friends gathered at portside to see their loved ones depart, knowing that they would probably never meet again in this world. They called it the “emigrants wake”, for it was just about as sad and moving an experience as you could imagine. No one could know the dangers awaiting these brave souls.

“... the Holy Name Society in each parish became one of the bulwarks for the preservation and expression of their Catholic Faith.”

These Irish emigrants and their Christian brethren from all parts of Europe found their Catholic faith sustained them in the new world. They built churches,

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

It has been an honor serving as your President for the past two years. As I look back over the past two years, I note advancements in the areas of technology (website, electronic reporting); improvements to the convention agenda and the goal of updating our Constitution. However, there is still much work to be done by the incoming Officers who will need your help and support.

I want to thank all our members for their support. I pledge to continue to remain active in the organization. My first responsibility as Past-President will be to Chair the Executive Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee is comprised of all the Past-Presidents of the NAHNS and shall act in an advisory capacity to the new Executive Board.

I submit my final report as your President knowing there is plenty of work remaining to be accomplished by the incoming Executive Board. They will need all our help. I plan to remain active on the National level and I encourage you to do the same by supporting the incoming Executive Board.

Respectfully submitted, I remain...

Yours in His Holy Name,

Joseph W. Lapointe
Immediate Past President

NEW NAHNS CONSTITUTION & BYLAWS RATIFIED

A new Constitution and Bylaws were ratified by the delegates to the 41st Annual National Membership meeting held in Baltimore, Maryland, from September 21 through September 25th. The new Constitution clearly defines membership in the Confraternity of the Most Holy Names of God and Jesus at both the Novice and the Professed levels.

To become a Novice member requires the candidate to fully believe and put into practice in their daily lives all of the promises specified in the Holy Name Pledge. The candidate must also fulfill any and all of the obligations and duties for a Novice Member as prescribed by the Parish/Deanery/(Arch)diocesan Holy Name Society with jurisdiction over the area the Novice resides.

Novice members may belong directly to the National Association if they reside in an area where there is no active Parish, Deanery or (Arch)diocesan Holy Name Society.

Professed Members of the Confraternity of the Most Holy Names of God and Jesus make promises at a special Induction Ceremony at a parish that has been properly chartered to the Dominican Order. The names of the Professed members must be written in ink in the Official Register of the Holy Name Society. The Spiritual Director or the priest conducting the induction ceremony should sign and date the page containing the signatures.

After the induction ceremony the candidates become Professed members in the Confraternity of the most Holy Names of God and Jesus and now obtain the graces, indulgences, rights, privileges and Spiritual Benefits of Membership.

The new governing documents now pave the way for the NAHNS to apply for Non-profit status under Section 501

Saint Catherine Union HNS - Canadian Report

Canadian members of the Holy Name Society send best wishes to our brothers in Christ from the United States with the assurance that our thoughts and prayers are with you as you deliberate on issues and items of mutual concern at the national convention in Baltimore.

We are pleased that our good friend, Father Paul Sabo, Spiritual Director of the Buffalo Diocese Holy Name Society, has agreed to act on our behalf. I have indicated in previous reports that Father Paul is a tremendous supporter of Holy Name on the Canadian side of the border with regular attendance at our meetings and spiritual nights of reflection.

Our new series of nights of reflection commence in November and are held every other month at Mount Carmel Spiritual Centre in Niagara Falls, Ontario. We open with Mass followed by a spiritual talk and then general discussion. Although the nights of reflection are sponsored by the Holy Name Society, all men of the diocese are welcome to attend. Men of the various Holy Name Societies offer suggest topics and the Carmelite Fathers are most accommodating.

This year marked the 52nd annual convention of the St. Catherine's Diocese Holy Name Society which was hosted by Our Lady of the Scapular Parish in Niagara Falls on October 23rd. The theme, "The Eucharist: Praying with New Words" was presented by Diocesan Holy Name Spiritual Director Father Peter Rowe and was specifically chosen to prepare members and others who will attend for changes that are coming in the liturgy this advent. The new bishop, His Excellency Gerard Bergie, attended and celebrated the convention Mass.

The annual retreat organized by the Holy Name Societies of St. Catherine's and Buffalo Dioceses, took place on September 9, 10 and 11 at St. Columban Centre in Derby, New York, with 43 men attending. Both St. Catherine's Diocese HNS Spiritual Director, Father Peter Rowe, and Buffalo HNS Spiritual Director, Father Paul Sabo, participated in the retreat along with presenter Deacon Bill Hynes of St. Benedict's Parish in Eggerstville, New York. Deacon Bill spoke about the many merits and good works of the Holy Name Society with several of the men saying it was one of their best retreats ever.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY NEWS

A sense of peace and calm prevails through the air as participants drive onto the grounds of the Retreat House, reading the words of the welcoming sign: “Be Still and Know that I am God”.

Holy Name members in the Diocese of St. Catherine’s continue to be involved in the spiritual and social life of their parishes, supporting such charitable causes as student bursaries, various parish ministries, parish and diocesan financial support, Development and Peace, and the St.

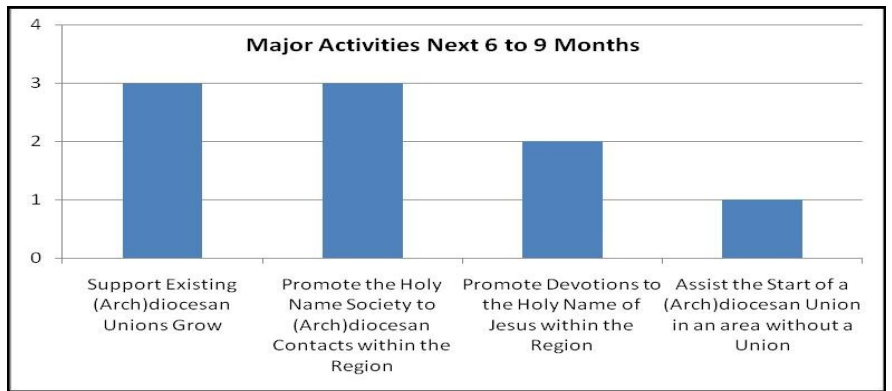

Vincent De Paul Society. Members appreciate the guidance, support and wisdom of Spiritual Director Father Peter Rowe, who is the epitome of the priesthood, and feel further blessed to have such a devout and inspiring priest as a leader. At each of the meetings, Father Peter Rowe inspires us with a message of deep faith and hope that we can take home and put into practice.

schools, hospitals. They stood at the ready to assist their pastors in a formidable challenge. They banded together to form a unity, and the Holy Name Society in each parish became one of the bulwarks for the preservation and expression of their Catholic Faith. Thus these early emigrants became real apostles, missionaries and crusaders for the faith.

Today the descendants of the earlier immigrant forbearers face another formidable challenge. Once again their faith is being tested in an often hostile atmosphere. The bishops and priests again need the support of a dedicated laity - men and women to embark on a new crusade. What is needed is the restoration of the faith in our daily lives, a new evangelization that will bring the message of the Gospel into our lives, and will help our fellow citizens know and love Jesus Christ.

This is the challenge of the Holy Name Society and its members today. I lay it before you: pick up the banner,

"This is the challenge of the Holy Name Society and its members today ... through your ministry ... and by your dedicated example, hold high the Cross of Christ and bring honor and reverence to His Holy Name."

carry the torch and bring Jesus alive through your ministry and the practice of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Cooperate with your pastors in reaching out to the un-churched and those who have fallen away; and by your dedicated example, hold high the Cross of Christ, and bring honor and reverence to His Holy Name.

We possess two practical examples of this work. One is the ministry to the imprisoned: the Metanoia program of mini-retreats and spiritual renewal. The other example is the Mary Mother of the Captives prison pen pal project. In addition, we need to continue our efforts to reach out to the Hispanic immigrants who face many obstacles in living their faith. They need to have printed material and personal contact in their own language. With emphasis on the personal contact with Jesus Our Savior, this new wave of immigrants can be a powerful force in expressing our Catholic Faith.

The prison ministry and the outreach to the Hispanic peo-

NEW RELIGIOUS AND SPIRITUAL RENEWAL COMMITTEE

The NAHNS has commissioned a new Standing Committee as part of the new Constitution. The committee is called the Religious and Spiritual Renewal Committee. The new committee is called upon to: Cultivate, educate, promote and communicate the spirituality of the Confraternity of the most Holy Names of God and Jesus. Promote devotion to the most holy Names of God and Jesus and assist Holy Name Society members grow in holiness and obtain their personal salvation.

Key initiatives and activities of the Committee will be to:

- Promote proper formation of Holy Name Society members through Catholic religious education, prayer and worship.
- Prayer is the foundation for growing in holiness. This Committee encourages and provides resources for (Arch)Diocesan Unions and parish Holy Name Societies to sponsor prayer vigils, memorial masses, retreats, days of recollection and other devotions.

- Develop, publish and promote prayer cards and other devotional materials that promote personal and public devotion to the Most Holy Names of God and Jesus and make them available to members, potential members, and the Catholic public, through the NAHNS Store.

- Develop resource materials that guide (Arch)Diocesan Unions and Parish Holy Name Societies sponsor and promote Eucharistic Adoration, Benedictions, prayer cenacles and other forms of individual and public worship.

ples are just two examples of how the Holy Name apostolate can be carried out effectively today. The prison ministry organizations have accomplished much good, and the efforts to bring the Holy Name message to those immigrants flooding into our cities (often bewildered and lost in a sea of secularism and unsavory influence) need the reassurance that

“What is needed is the restoration of the faith in our daily lives, a new evangelization that will bring the message of the Gospel into our lives, and will help our fellow citizens know and love Jesus Christ.”

God loves them and that Jesus invites them to partake of the good things of His kingdom.

I regret that age and infirmity prevent me from being as active in this Holy Name apostolate as I should like. Goodbyes are painful but not when you look to the real meaning of the word, which means “God be with you”. In this message, that is what I mean and when I say “good luck”, it definitely is not just an idle wish or figure of speech. I mean to say I am praying for all the Holy Name members especially those I have had the privilege of serving with these past few years as your Spiritual Director. I pray that God will indeed bless you all, and prosper the work of the Holy Name Apostolate. God bless you all.

*Fr. Thomas Hayes O.P.
NAHNS Spiritual Director*

(Editor’s note; Fr. Thomas Hayes has officially resigned as the Spiritual Director of the National Association of the Holy Name Society effective with the September 22nd Annual Membership Meeting. We all thank Fr. Hayes for his many years of dedicated and loyal service to the Holy Name Society. We are thankful for his support and we pray God gives him the strength to continue his efforts to promote devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus)

- Provide education and information to help Spiritual Moderators of (Arch) diocesan Unions and Parish Holy Name Societies guide their members in line with the spirituality of the Confraternity of the most Holy Names of God and Jesus.

Responsibilities of the new Committee are to:

- Communicate and educate Holy Name Society members about the spirituality of the Confraternity of the Holy Names of God and Jesus and the Obligations and Spiritual benefits of membership.

- Provide national leadership, including consultation and resources for (Arch) Diocesan Unions, parish Holy Name Societies, and individual members, on individual and public devotion to the most Holy Names of God and Jesus.

- Assist (Arch)Diocesan Unions and parish Holy Name Societies through education and training by providing resources and services to promote proper spiritual formation of members consistent with the spirituality of the Confraternity entrusted to the Dominican Order.
